*Believe in the Magic...
Even if you can't see it yet.*

*Seek enchantment, allow wonder,
discover the grandeur,
feel the presence, receive the grace,
let in the rapture, romance the mystery,
be open to possibility, celebrate the joy,
touch the triumph, caress the splendor,
embrace the love, seize the moment.*

*Trust, know, imagine, investigate, invite, seek out.
Surrender, release, allow, dare, captivate, connect.*

*Visit the forest with the tiny cottage and twinkling lights.
Call forth the ancient ones who wait here for you.
Gather the Angels and unseen friends around you,
more numerous than before.
Invite the fairies, elves, gnomes and kindred spirits.*

*And the little tree will tell you its secrets.
The river will gift you its message.
The cavern will tell you its story.
The mountains will shelter your dreams.
The firelight will awaken your spirit.
And the truth will tug away at your soul.*

*Tis a place of magic. Go within, be still, listen...
Tread lightly, walk softly, whisper.
The magic lives in your heart, it always has, now and forever more.*

*Explore this place, inside and out.
Where obstacles cease to exist, troubles melt away,
struggles show themselves as lies, hardships flounder,
worries disappear, turmoil dissolves, pain evaporates.
Rest in the knowing that miracles are the order of the day.
Kindness and generosity abound and laughter captures your heart.
Age doesn't matter, differences don't exist, time stands still.
Believe... Believe ... Believe...*

*In a pristine new world, right around the corner, waiting...
YOU are the creator, producer, inventor, architect, mastermind.*

*Don't ever stop believing.
Don't think of giving up. You've come too far.
Help is on the way. Hope looms tall and strong.
Wonder is at hand. Joy waits in the shadows.
Happiness is a given. Peace comes dressed in miracles.*

Life begins again, greater than before...

*Take bigger steps. Breathe larger breaths. Sigh louder sighs and...
Believe...*

Just BELIEVE.
